WAYS OF GIVING – In addition to outright, unrestricted gifts, there are other ways to support Life’s Kitchen and leave a legacy. You can have a dramatic and lasting impact that will strengthen the organization over the years, and you or your family may be able to enjoy significant tax benefits, as well:

- BEQUESTS - By designating a gift to Life’s Kitchen in your will, you are helping ensure that the Treasure Valley always will be a place where quality care is available to everyone in our community.
- GIFTS OF SECURITIES - Outright gifts of marketable stocks and bonds that have appreciated can be an especially attractive gift option. Not only is the fair market value of the securities deductible, but you may also avoid capital gains tax on the appreciation.
- REQUIRED MINIMUM DISTRIBUTION – If you’re of the age of 70.5 or older, and don’t consider your IRA’s Required Minimum Distribution part of your annual household budget, consider donating it. You’ll avoid paying the income tax you would otherwise.
- ADDITIONAL WAYS OF GIVING include gifts of real estate or life insurance; trusts; gifts through pension plans or of personal property.

Please consult your advisors when planning to support Life’s Kitchen, as your financial situation and charitable priorities are unique.

Please notify us if you decide to include Life’s Kitchen in your estate planning through one of the arrangements described here.

We would like to recognize your generosity but will honor a request to keep your contribution confidential.
